He is alive! Those words have been uttered, exclaimed, and proclaimed in dozens of movies with numerous different plots, but nowhere is it more important than in the context of Easter; Jesus is alive! Everything about the Christian faith hinges on the reality of the resurrection. 1 Corinthians 15 declares that if Jesus had not risen then our faith is futile, preaching is pointless, we are stuck in sin, and are to be pitied. What a bleak outlook for humanity should Jesus still be in the grave. However, Paul declared in 1 Corinthians 15:20, "But now Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who are asleep." I am grateful for the resurrection and I pray you are too. Even though Easter is now behind us, I want to encourage you to live as if each day is Easter. Adrian Rogers beautifully exhorted his church years ago, "We ought to be living as if Jesus died yesterday, rose this morning, and is coming back this afternoon." May we make it our daily ambition to live out the reality of the resurrection!

Grace and Peace,

Pastor Geoff
